Passport To Liverpool

FRIDAY 15th MAY 2009 at 1.30 pm at SARA HALL

Passport to Liverpool is a short film starring the people of Liverpool and traces why it is different to other English cities. Liverpool has its own particular identity; its own notions of independence, freedom, dissent; of cosmopolitanism and perceptions of work, justice, politics and culture. The film was made by local film makers Bright Moon Films and we are hopeful that one of the film's producers, Dave Cotterill, will join us to discuss the film and to answer questions.

All are welcome. Afternoon tea will be provided. For catering purposes it would be useful if you would let us know if you will be attending. Please leave a message on 726 0805.

The event is sponsored by the Workers' Educational Association for Adult Learners' Week.

Followed by SARA Annual General Meeting

After tea, at approximately 3.15 pm the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of Sudley Area Residents' Association will take place and again everyone is most welcome to attend.

Christmas Appeal 2008

For over 30 years, the KIND Christmas Appeal has helped thousands of disadvantaged children and their families to enjoy this special time of year.

Working in partnership with statutory and voluntary sector organisations, KIND identify families who don't have the resources to spend on the things that many of us take for granted during the season of goodwill. Using teams of volunteers, KIND pack hampers with food and toys and distribute them.

With this in mind the Trustees decided to donate the proceeds from our November and December Raffles to KIND, in addition, there were a number of generous donations and also the proceeds from a game of bingo at our festive evening.

A total of £194.50 was raised from Raffles, Bingo raised £71.00 and Donations raised a further £80.00 giving a grand total for the KIND Christmas Appeal of £345.50.

Hello everyone, as we all look forward to longer days and warmer weather it's time once again to bring you another edition of the SARA newsletter.

The SARA newsletter of course is the ideal outlet if you are a community based unit, organisation, youth club, sports club etc. to let people know about you and your activities.

If you would like us to feature your events and activities in our future editions, or if you have photographs or articles which could be of interest to the residents in the area, please do not hesitate to get in touch with us.

Thanks are due for all the voluntary effort involved in producing and distributing the Newsletter to 2,500 homes in the area.

We would also like to thank all the businesses who advertise in the newsletter as this is how we fund the printing of 3,000 copies three times a year.

To get in touch just call 0151-726 0805 where you can leave a message and someone will get back to you as soon as possible or email: newsdesk@sudley.org.uk or drop us a line to the SARA Hall, Rundle Road, Aigburth, Liverpool L17 0AQ

SARA SWIMMING SESSIONS

It is with much sadness that we report the end of the SARA Swimming Sessions at I.M. Marsh. As far as we can ascertain from looking back through the books, SARA had run the weekly session for around 23 years (if anyone knows exactly when they started, please let us know). Over that time countless children learned to swim and some of those children when they grew up and became parents, started to bring their own children along.

The sessions were family affairs, with grandparents, parents and children coming together in the friendly atmosphere of a closed and secure session. There was the ability to have separate lanes in use for the various levels of expertise and serious swimmers were not inhibited by beginners.

In earlier days there was a substantial waiting list of people wanting to join the group, so it is particularly ironic that in the present keep fit culture that the group had declined. Obviously the smaller the group, the greater the individual fee that SARA had to charge in order to pay for the hire of the pool. The deciding factor in sealing the fate of the session was the City Council's offer of free gym/pool membership for the over 60's at its Leisure Centres.

Thank you to everyone who supported the sessions and who tried very hard to keep them going. Should we find that there is an opportunity in the future to re-introduce the sessions, we will of course do so.

IMPROVED ACCESS AT SARA HALL

Over the last five years, SARA has looked at numerous options to improve the accessibility of SARA Hall. In July 2008 the Trustees employed an architect to assist with a feasibility study which provided a number of options.

Plans have been drafted for new level access into SARA Hall and also provide an accessible toilet both of which comply with the Disability Discrimination Act 2005. Costings for the full project have been estimated at approximately £25,000. To continue with the project, the Trustees made a decision to split the process into phases. The initial phase being the new level access and phase two being the new toilet and hearing loop system.

At the time of writing, quotes for the level access have been received, along with a grant of £5,000 from the Councillors' Community Initiative Fund, part of the Liverpool City Council Neighbourhood Fund.

NO PLASTIC BAGS PLEASE

A reminder to you all that when using your Blue Bin for recycling or your Green Bin for garden waste DO NOT USE PLASTIC BAGS. Garden waste and items for recycling should just be placed in the appropriate bin.

POLICE SURGERIES

SARA Hall will once again be hosting a monthly police surgery with our new designated PCSO Deenan Ramaya.

Surgeries will run on the first Tuesday of each month between 5 and 6pm starting on Tuesday 7th April.

There's no need to make an appointment, just turn up between 5 and 6pm.

Surgeries offer an opportunity to raise any issues you may have or to seek guidance / information from Merseyside Police.

Please come along and support this very important service.

YOUR COMMUNITY MATTERS

The fifth "Your Community Matters" event for Mossley Hill took place at Sudley Infant School on 9th March. These events have proved to be very popular with residents and an opportunity to discuss local issues and concerns with Police, Public Agencies and Ward Councillors.

At the latest meeting, residents were told that it was likely to be the last. This is as a result of a major reduction in funding and it is believed that Liverpool Charity and Voluntary Services (LCVS) needs an additional £500,000 to maintain its engagement and empowerment programmes with Liverpool's third sector and residents.

We have written to Louise Ellman, MP for Riverside and also Colin Hilton, Chief Executive of Liverpool City Council to express our concerns.

A note of thanks from the Chairman

My family and I would like to thank friends and neighbours for their support, kind words, floral tributes and donations of £400 for Marie Curie Liverpool following the death of my father Howard Joseph Kearney on New Year's Eve.

Turkey and Tinsel - Ayr (24th - 28th November, 2008)

We set off on a cold but bright winter's day to make our way north for SARA's annual Tinsel and Turkey holiday. The weather forecast was reasonable - a mostly dry but very cold week ahead. The trip up to Ayr was broken by a lunch stop at Gretna Green. Having left SARA Hall at 9.30 am - a most civilised time to start a holiday - we were at the Station Hotel, Ayr by 3.30 pm. A cream tea was served on arrival which gave the porters time to get our cases to the rooms.

The Station Hotel is an impressive building built, as the name implies, at the railway station in the late 1800's. A typical Victorian structure with high ceilings and a labyrinth of corridors, the interior looks tired and, given the cold weather proved to be very draughty particularly in the public rooms.

Tuesday was a free day to explore Ayr and this turned out to be a fairly sizeable town with much to commend it - certainly some interesting speciality shops as well as the usual high street names. The seafront in November is perhaps not the most inviting place to be but in the sunshine it was a bracing alternative to shopping.

Wednesday's excursion was to Glasgow with its magnificent old buildings and interesting newer ones such as the Clyde Auditorium known locally as the Armadillo because of its shape. The city centre shopping was excellent and as always with these day excursions whetted one's appetite for a longer visit.

Thursday saw the weather deteriorate considerably with a keen wind bringing in some wet weather. A trip around the coast to some small villages was curtailed prematurely given the inclement weather and all too soon it was Friday and we were on our way home breaking our journey at Carlisle - another place worthy of a return visit.

The on-board raffle raised £65 for KIND's Christmas Hamper Appeal. Thanks to all who donated prizes.

VALENTINE'S CELEBRATION EVENING

A visit from The Liverpool Harmony Singers is always an eagerly anticipated event and they have established themselves as a firm favourite in the SARA calendar of social events. Every year they manage to produce a new show that is always fresh and entertaining with a mix of serious and comedy routines, solos and ensemble numbers.

Despite being Friday 13th February there were thankfully no mishaps and the show went as smoothly and professionally as ever. The ladies are to be congratulated on their imaginative use of costumes and their varied repertoire.

As always, a raffle was held during the refreshment break and raised £68 for SARA's Youth Recognition Awards. Thanks are due to everyone who donated prizes in particular to the singers who very kindly contributed items.

SARA CINEMA CLUB

The Cinema Club has been meeting monthly for a number of years now and has become an established feature at SARA Hall. The format is that one month we show a fairly recent film (as soon as the DVD release date will allow) and then the following month a cinema classic.

Unfortunately our license prevents us from advertising which films will be shown although we are permitted to advertise on our own premises and of course by word of mouth.

The cinema dates for the rest of the year are as follows:

Fridays 24th April; 22 May; 26th June; 24th July; 28th August; 25th September; 23rd October; 27th November and 11th December.

The starting time is 7 pm in all cases.

The club is well supported with an average of 45/50 attending each film. If you haven't been before and would like to join the cinema club (membership of which is free) please contact the Hall on 0151-726 0805.

SERENDIPITY

You'd think at almost sixty - not much else to learn,
How very wrong we'd be to think that's so,
For everyday can show us, something new and wonderful -
And teach something that we didn't know.
Each person that we meet and each corner that we turn
Confronts us with a scene - or someone new.
Was grass such a glorious shade of green before,
the lilac bush so dense?
Or the sky above, such a wonderful shade of blue?
Did roses always smell so good, were people always kind?
Were colours always glorious so bright?
At evensong, I hadn't heard the singing quite so sweet
Nor did recall the velvet feel of night
Yes, even now at sixty plus, I'm still discovering Things.....
Not great and wondrous answers, nor profound
But life's more simple treasures here before my eyes
And which now-in my life's Autumn, I have found.

SARA WORKING WITH MERSEYSIDE POLICE

Welcome to the latest update from the Neighbourhood Police Team for Mossley Hill ward area. Since December 2008, we have been working on Public Priorities, namely Anti-social Behaviour, Improving Youth Provision, Speeding and Parking in the Mossley Hill area. These priorities were identified through public consultation with our Key Individual Network Group and at the Your Community Matters Event.

In relation to Anti-social Behaviour, there is now a Section 30 Dispersal Order in place within the area surrounding Aigburth Vale. This runs from 11th March 2009 until 30th August 2009 and was established in response to complaints from the community. The order enables Police Officers and PCSO's to disperse groups of two or more persons congregating in the area for the purpose of committing anti-social behaviour.

The team has been provided with funding via the South Neighbourhood Management Services and Local Councillors to set up a Community Focussed Policing initiative targeted at increasing Police patrols in the area. This is being complemented by a programme of Youth Diversionary Activities in line with the second priority of improving Youth Provision. Football Events are being run weekly, co-ordinated by PCSO's, which consist of a coaching input from external provider, Maverick.

A number of the youngsters taking part are also undertaking a leadership course to develop their skills. Officers have also taken youngsters to the Awesome Walls climbing facility in Bootle, which has proved popular. The team are working closely with SARA, Kelton Park Residents' Association and Contour Housing to provide further activities over the coming months which will include Arts and Crafts Sessions and Hip-Hop Dancing. If you require any further information about Youth Diversionary Activities being co-ordinated by the Neighbourhood Team, contact PCSO Karen Sherman on 0151-777-5126.

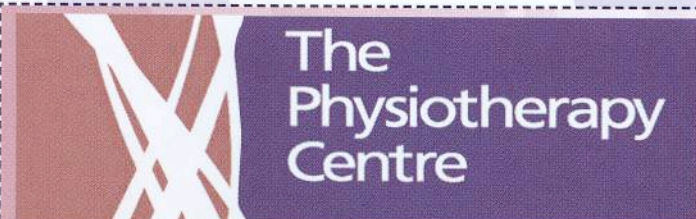

The team have also been working closely with Senior Management from IM Marsh, Community Representatives from Mossley Hill, the Highways Department and Local Councillors to examine solutions to the ongoing problem of parking congestion around the university. A number of options are currently under consideration, including the provision of more parking facilities on the university site itself, which will be subject to wider consultation with the local community.

The team have deployed the speed indicator display devices to roads where complaints of speeding have been received. These include, Mossley Hill Road, Rose Lane, Cooper Avenue North, Barkhill Road, Brodie Avenue and Elmswood Road.

For further information on policing in your local neighbourhood, please visit www.merseyside.police.uk.

DARWIN AND THE BEAGLE

World Museum Liverpool

A small exhibition called Voyage of the Beagle and the Darwin Discovery Trail fun quiz are the latest World Museum Liverpool events marking the 200th anniversary of the great scientist's birth.

The two are launched at the start of National Science Week 7 March 2009 and both run until 18 December 2009. Voyage of the Beagle is in the museum's Natural History Centre and features items from Charles Darwin's time and a 1:64 scale model of the Beagle.

When the Beagle returned to Britain in 1836 after the epic five-year voyage around the world, 27-year-old Darwin became a celebrity. On display are pieces of equipment similar to those used by Darwin - telescope, compass and sextant along with illustrations of the Beagle. There are two pistols of the type carried by the naturalist as he hunted for specimens. Mike Graham, the centre's curatorial manager, says: "The captain of the Beagle told Darwin that he must always be armed when he went ashore in remote places."

GEORGE ALWAYS: Portraits of George Melly by Maggi Hambling

George Always: Portraits of George Melly by Maggi Hambling celebrates this most colourful son of Liverpool: jazz performer, surrealist, comic, raconteur, critic and author - "Good Time George".

This exhibition of more than 20 paintings and drawings, most previously unseen by the public, runs until 31 May 2009 at the Walker Art Gallery.

George came from a well-known Liverpool family and remained a frequent visitor to the city throughout his life, actively supporting the arts. Maggi Hambling and George Melly were the closest of friends. He said she would go down in art history as Maggi (Coffin) Hambling, referring to her practise of drawing and painting people on their deathbeds and afterwards.

The most notable were the series featuring her father and her muse, Henrietta Moraes - shown simultaneously in London in 2001 to great critical acclaim. Maggi says:

"I loved and worked from life with all three and so the fact of death did not kill my desire to paint them. One by one they have inhabited me. George often makes a grand appearance in my dreams. I still hear him laugh, tell jokes and sing. From wherever he may be!"

The exhibition features oil paintings - including the stunning triple portrait of 1998 on loan from the National Portrait Gallery - and 12 lively ink drawings, the last series of drawings for which George posed. There are two paintings of his final days and works from memory and the imagination.

NATIONAL MUSEUMS LIVERPOOL

There are drawers and display cases containing specimens linked to Darwin's studies including an example of horn wrack, a sea creature that was the subject of his first scientific paper as an undergraduate. Other specimens include fossils, snails, moths and butterflies linked to evolutionary theories. Four bird specimens were collected by Alfred Russel Wallace - the scientist who came up with natural selection ideas which prompted Darwin to publish his controversial theory On the Origin of Species in 1859.

The Darwin Discovery Trail has 11 questions about Darwin-linked exhibits located around the museum.

Two works - George Always, I and George Always, II - are loans from The Ivy Restaurant in London. A towering new waterfall triptych, inspired by George's favourite colours, will be among works on show for the first time. Maggi's responses in paint to George's death in July 2007 are far from morbid. They are tender, challenging, serious and funny. These highly original and imaginative portraits confront the question of death head-on.

George, who was born in 1926 and educated at Stowe, could entertain, fascinate and outrage - often all at the same time.

In 1997 he sat on the jury for the John Moores exhibition - Britain's biggest painting competition which has been staged at the Walker since 1957.

George had a strong personal attachment to Sudley House, an art gallery run by National Museums Liverpool in the south of the city, which he helped to publicise. As a child, he and his family would visit the wealthy occupant Emma Holt who later gave the house and its important art collection to the people of Liverpool.
