SARA raises £1,700 for the charity "Zoe's Place"

For 2005 - 2006 SARA adopted Zoe's Place baby hospice as our main fundraising focus. The sum of £1,700 has been raised over the year through cinema evenings, social evenings, raffles on our coach trips and holidays, donations from residents and our SARA book stall. Your support in attending these events has been greatly appreciated by the committee. To maintain our bookstall, we would welcome donations of good condition paperback books, all proceeds from the sale of these books will go to our charity of the year for 2006-2007.

SARA's Annual Valentine's Evening with the Ladies Harmony Singers took place at S.A.R.A. Hall on Friday 17th February 2006. The evening was a great success as usual, the Ladies having perfected a new routine for us.

They once again kindly donated their fee to our "Zoe's Place" fund and the Committee did a great job in providing the free buffet. The enjoyable evening raised £275 for "Zoe's Place". Thank you to everyone who attended - we are already looking forward to next year's function.

SARA AGM Our AGM this year will be held at the SARA hall on Friday 12th of May 2006 at 7.30pm. As with previous years, this is your opportunity to come along and meet the Committee, hear what we have been doing to support the area over the last 12 months and make any suggestions for what we can do for you over the next 12 months. This is also your opportunity to raise any concerns you may have in the local area.

Everyone is welcome, please come along.

Editor's Notes

The SARA newsletter is now in its third year of production and we are always looking for exciting, community based issues to feature in the publication.

We are always on the look out for articles, photographs and general items of interest, so if you have anything of interest to put forward, please don't hesitate!!

Once again we would heartily like to thank everyone who helps put the SARA newsletter together and to everyone who helps distribute the newsletter to over 2,500 households in the Sudley area, without whom this would not be possible.

We would also like to thank all the small businesses who advertise in the newsletter as this is how we fund the printing of 3,000 copies three times a year.

As this is a multi cultural community, we would also welcome information on events and activities that might be occurring within the community. Religious, cultural, music, art and sporting activities are all welcome to be featured within the newsletter, just let us know at:

Sefton Park Restoration

Approval from the Heritage Lottery Fund

Liverpool City Council has finally obtained approval from the Heritage Lottery Fund for the restoration and development of Sefton Park to begin. Project development work is now underway to prepare detailed designs which can be put forward for approval.

Proposals include cleaning, upgrading and renovation of all watercourses, buildings, listed features such as statues and woodlands.

These details formed the basis of a second stage bid which was put forward to the HLF (Heritage Lottery Fund) in December 2005, where final approval for a £6.5 m programme of works was sought.

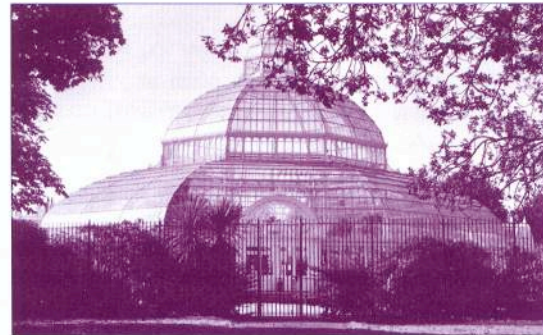

If successful, the restoration of Sefton Park is due to commence in 2007.

In its hey day the 200 acre Sefton Park looked magnificent and even today commands a beautiful and tranquil spot in the heart of south suburban Liverpool.

At this time of year the sight of millions of golden daffodils around the lake and dancing amongst the trees draws thousands of people from across the city in admiration.

Sefton Park proudly boasts itself the home of many indigenous species of tree such as beech, oak sycamore and ash curving their way along the many pathways of peaceful bliss.

Originally part of the Royal Park of Toxteth, Sefton Park was bought from Lord Sefton in 1866, by Liverpool City Council.

Flora Adidas, Liverpool Half Marathon Sefton Park 19th March 2006

On Sunday March 19th 2006 South Liverpool yet again hosted the prestigious Flora Adidas Liverpool half marathon. Organisers say that an even greater crowd than 2005 participated this year, and following its great success, next year's event is expected to attract vast numbers of runners of all ages.

This year's event had 5,000 runners at the starting line at 10am on a cool, but dry and still day. These conditions were perfect for anyone running 13.1 miles. As in last years event, the atmosphere from start to finish was light hearted and welcoming. Spectators lined much of the route which went through Princes park towards the centre of Liverpool. Music along the way also kept the participants in high spirits, until finally the runners made their way back through Sefton park to an atmospheric finale.

The park is home to the famous Palm House, a typical example of fine Victorian architecture, so typical in the Victorian quest to experience fine, foreign and exotic samples of plant life within the cooler climes of Liverpool. The Palm House itself has undergone a remarkable transformation in recent years that has restored it to its former glory.

The Peter Pan statue has been reinstated in Sefton Park following cleaning and repair by the Conservation Centre supported by European Objective 1 and City Council funding. Initially it has been sited alongside the Palm House although this location will be reviewed if the Heritage Lottery Fund approves grant aid to restore and improve Sefton Park. Consideration will then be given to returning the statue to its original setting alongside the watercourse.

The Clipper 05-06 Round the World Yacht Race, which was due to finish in Liverpool in July, and the river festival which surrounds it, lies very much in doubt.

The original dates for the Yacht Race were 18th September 2005 to 10th of July 2006, however the fleet of ten yachts were forced to dock in the Philippines when a potentially deadly fault was discovered in a number of the vessels.

After seven weeks of repairs and alterations the race is ready to resume, but organisers of the welcoming home celebrations, the Liverpool Culture Company, may now experience difficulties in rescheduling events to fit in with the new expected finishing times.

Thousands of spectators merged along the river Mersey for the start of the 05-06 Clipper Round-the-World Yacht Race in September.

10 crews set sail on an 11-month ocean adventure when the starting gun was fired at noon on September the 18th, all in a bid to bring home the renowned 'Clipper Cup.'

Clipper is the world's fastest and longest amateur sailing race, a 35,000-mile round the world trip.

Liverpool proudly hosts the start and finish of the race as the city continues its build up to European Capital of Culture in 2008.

Each of the ten competing yachts is 68ft long, representing nations such as Australia, Singapore, China and South Africa, and each is crewed by international teams of 17 amateurs and one professional skipper.

The Liverpool 08 crew includes Liverpool residents Claire Daley, Peter Mulcahy and David Dowling who won their places through a Liverpool Culture Company competition.

The Clipper 05-06 race is divided into seven separate legs, visiting 12 international ports, some of which include Salvador (Brazil), Fremantle (Australia), Qingdao (China) and New York before the race reaches a thrilling climax in Liverpool in Summer 2006.

Keep an eye on the local press for definite dates on the Clippers' return!

A Big Thank You!!!!

As many of you will know, Ken retired from the SARA committee in January. The committee would like to say a big thank you for his 10 year service to SARA. Ken has been instrumental in many of the developments at SARA including the introduction of the LINC classes, looking after the general upkeep of the SARA hall, introduction of the Sudley Football Club sponsorship, organising the day trips and holidays for 8 years and providing endless cups of tea and sandwiches at our functions and events. To show our appreciation the committee has donated £100.00 from SARA funds to Zoe's Place. Thanks Ken!

Tuesday Afternoon Tea Dance

The Tuesday afternoon dancers held their Christmas party on 13th December 2005. Everyone brought a contribution to the buffet and made it a really super spread. So with good food, lots of music and dancing and a friendly party atmosphere, everyone thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

At the beginning of the year three new dancers were welcomed to the group. All the dancers are now looking forward to another year as enjoyable as the last one, which included a trip to the tea dance at Southport's Floral Hall and a V.E. Day party.

Looking forward to seeing everyone on Tuesday afternoons, 1.30pm - 3.30pm, everyone is welcome!

The Crofton Estate

You will be pleased to know that the proposals for developing the Crofton site have been withdrawn. This is probably due to the fact that any planning application outside the HMRI areas (Housing Management Renewal Initiative) would probably fail.

This doesn't mean that they can't try again in a few years time when HMRI is completed.

Alley Gates

The Council has received information from Whitehall that the powers required to enact the new gating orders will be in place in April. The Council are looking at how and over what time scales the orders will be able to be used. More information should be available in the coming weeks.

The need for gates will have to be prioritised throughout the City. This should mean that areas of high anti-social behaviour and crime should be gated first.

South Liverpool Suburbs Ideal for British Film Industry!

In January of this year there was a real buzz and hive of activity in some of our local streets. "Across the Universe" Sound Films Ltd. took over, for a brief time, parts of Woodlands, Aigburth, Lucan, Bundoran, Rundle, Lugard, Lyttelton and Wingate Roads, in a grand bid to recreate 1960's Britain.

The production which is a musical and features the renowned front man of Ireland's U2, Bono (Paul Hewson) is set to be released late in 2006 - early 2007.

History

St.George - Patron Saint of England

With all of the recent debate on our national heritage, I thought it might be a nice time to have a look at the historical beginnings and heritage of England's patron saint, George.

There are many accounts about this character George who is believed to have lived during the 3rd or 4th century AD.

One is that he was a Roman soldier of deep christian character, another is that he was a Cappadocian knight from north Africa and became a christian martyr at Lydda in Palestine in the 4th Century.

George is however most famous for his bravery in slaying the dragon and rescuing a maiden at Silene in Libya. He is often represented wearing armour and slaying the dragon with a lance which bears a flag with a red cross on a white background. In some accounts he even tames the dragon.

Saint George became the patron saint of England in the 14th century. He was a popular early Christian martyr elsewhere in Christendom and was the patron saint of soldiers.

The real-life history of St George is so scant that he was demoted by the Catholic Church to a third-class, minor saint in the first half of the twentieth century. Only in the year 2000 was he elevated once again to the role of 'national saint' and awarded his "day of solemnity" by the Pope. If little is known about the man, the myth is legendary - a dragon-slaying Christian hero triumphs over evil in an unyielding course of events.

St George was initially promoted to patron saint in 1061 when a church in Doncaster was dedicated to him. But earliest references to him in history come from the Anglo-Saxon prose writer, Aelfric, who reveres him in his Lives of the Saints (c.1000). George also appears in the Golden Legends, an English translation of Jacobus de Voragine's Saints' Lives published by Caxton in 1483.

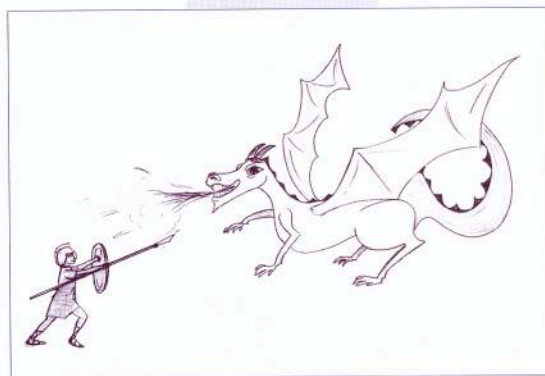

The legend - in which George slays a fierce dragon, symbolising evil, and rescues an innocent maiden from death - is thought to have appeared as late as the 12th century and may have origins in the story of Perseus, who defended the virgin Andromeda against the monstrous Medusa.

To Christians, George is a historical figure, an archetypal soldier made famous for tearing down Diocletian's edict against Christianity. For this act he is believed to have been beheaded in Lydda, Palestine (in AD 303), thus becoming an early Christian martyr.

At the Council of Oxford in 1222, St George's Day was declared a public holiday. It was Edward III who instituted the Order of St George and encouraged the battle cry 'St George for England!' St George's Day continued to grow in popularity and the 23rd of April soon became an occasion for feasting in monasteries across England.

Today however things are a little different, the patron Saint's day is no longer a public holiday and no real celebrations can be seen on English soil.

If Saint George represented an English ethos of bravery, fairness and chivalry, it seems that maybe, they are dying along with the legend!

The answer was "Barty Crouch Jr", disguised as Mad Eye Moody!
The winner is: Andreas Kakou!!

Adult Competition

Our mission in the Christmas edition was to name the road pictured below. The photo was taken in the early 1900's and was printed up as a postcard and sold at Aigburth post office. The clue was in the tram lines in the middle of the road, the answer is "Aigburth Road". But guess what, there were no correct answers!! We have put all of the entrants names into a hat and pulled out a winner anyway.....Jane McGowan well done, your prize is on its way!!!

New Competition Open To All Ages

This time we would like art work of any kind, drawing, painting, photos etc. The theme is, "Liverpool In Bloom".

There are three categories, under 10's, 11 - 17 and Adults.

Did You Know?

Those of you who live near or travel on North Sudley Road may have noticed recently a rather large bird perched on a rooftop or flying overhead. This sight over the years, whilst rare is rather frequent for a city such as Liverpool.

The Grey Heron which is huge (90cm), has long legs, a long thin neck, a mid grey plumage with a white speckled under body. The grey heron is a year round migrant over much of Europe, that favours lakes or marshland, but during winter loves the coast and garden ponds.

Liverpool South Area · Aigburth and Grassendale Neighbourhood · April 2006

If like me you are looking forward to the warm British weather and intend to enjoy it to the full, can I ask you to take some very simple precautions. If you are gardening in the front of your house, lock the back of the house, when you go out lock all the windows in the house, and when you leave your car, close the windows, lock the doors and keep any valuables out of view. You do live in an area of low crime but these simple precautions will help to stop you becoming a victim of burglary or car crime. Most of this type of crime is opportunistic. Make it difficult for the criminal!

Our priorities remain the same, targeting speeding cars and anti social behaviour. We are concentrating on Aigburth Vale at the moment and I believe we have had a significant impact. We are using small video cameras for our bike patrols for the first time in Liverpool. They gather evidence of anti social behaviour and can be utilised in court where appropriate. If you are still experiencing problems please contact your community officer Constable Reynolds on 777-5125/6

On an interesting note Merseyside Police have reintroduced the police cadet scheme for 16-18 year olds. This is not a guarantee of police employment for the future but a scheme to introduce young people to the working life of a police officer as well as other community activities. We are also looking for community volunteers to fulfil a number of roles working alongside the police and members of the community to join the special constabulary. If you know any one who would be interested please let me know by phoning the above number or writing to me at Allerton police station.
